Keagan Chisnall

Contact

- Townsville, Australia
- keagan@chisnall.io
- +61 412 891 641
- keagan-chisnall
- xon52

Qualifications

Master of Management
Monash University 2017
Second Class Honours, Division A

Bachelor of Engineering (Chem)
James Cook University 2007
First Class Honours

Experiences

Software Engineering Manager (2021 - Now)
SafetyCulture

- Managed platform level products supporting 350,000+ MAU
- Led and coached 12 engineers across cross-functional teams
- Served as product and engineering manager for 1.5 years
- Domain expert in user management with significant projects in hierarchical groups, permissions systems, invites and onboarding, user properties, and automated workflows

Co-founder (2019 - 2020)
Medicly

- Built a medical startup without prior startup or medical experience
- Achieved proof of concept with over 100 MAU (general practitioners)
- Served as Entrepreneur in Residence for 6 months at Smart Precinct (Townsville)

Management Consultant (2015 - 2019)
Federal Government & Private

- Supported over 80 businesses in identifying and executing business improvement opportunities
- Participated in multiple sales, pricing negotiation, and mediation meetings for leadership support and coaching
- Contracted to the Federal Government for grant eligibility and application support (18 months)

Area Manager (2012 - 2014)
Nalco Water, An Ecolab Company

- Achieved profitability in an area that was previously underperforming within 6 months
- Managed a team of 8-11 engineers and technicians across 3 offices
- Handled 150 customer accounts worth ~$4 million ARR

Process Engineer (2008 - 2012)
Sun Metals & Xstrata Technology

- Supported $10 million plant refurbishment and restart project in the Philippines
- Developed tailings dam management software for forecasting levels in various weather patterns
- Innovated wastewater separation and recovery methods